Aboard the Emmylou

The P.S. Emmylou combines modern convenience with old world charm.

You will take a step back in time as the engineer stokes the boiler with red gum logs, the paddlewheels gently break the river reflections and the captain sounds the nostalgic steam whistle to passing river traffic.

Eighteen overnight guests are comfortably accommodated in two-berth cabins, featuring traditional riverboat style bunks with the exception of one double bed cabin. All linen and towels are included.

Each deck provides showers and toilets. Additional facilities provided on board include sun decks, dining and bar areas, a galley and a front lounge.

A La Carte Menu & Top Local Wines

Elegance and style are the order of the day when it comes to catering aboard the P.S. Emmylou.

A fully trained chef prepares all meals fresh in the galley. You'll delight in the lightness, subtlety and sophistication of the a la carte menu, which draws on first-class locally grown produce.

Complimented by the elegant dry aromatic whites and rich powerful full-bodied reds produced in the Central Murray wine region and you will have experienced fine dining at its absolute best.

All this served to your table while you enjoy a glowing rose and gold sunset, listen to the river birds evening chorus, then linger over dessert and coffee to watch the stars appear.
